FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST – POLICE APPEAL TRIBUNAL

Dear Sir,

Thank you for your request for information (detailed below) received by the Department of Justice on the 03 December 2024: -

Please provide (broken down by year for the years 2019-2024) the number of appeal tribunals arranged by the DoJ in accordance with regulation 33, Police Service of Northern Ireland and Police Service of Northern Ireland Reserve (Injury Benefit) Regulations 2006?

This response addresses your question:

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 gives you two rights of access when you write to us asking for information. You have the right to know whether we hold recorded information falling in scope of your request, and you have the right to receive this recorded information subject to cost limit or exemption.

Freedom of Information is a request for recorded data that the Department of Justice holds. The information that the Department holds in relation to your request is outlined in the table below: -

Please provide (broken down by year for the years 2019-2024) the number of appeal tribunals arranged by the DoJ in accordance with regulation 33, Police Service of Northern Ireland and Police Service of Northern Ireland Reserve (Injury Benefit) Regulations 2006?

If you are unhappy with the result of your request for information you may request an internal review within two calendar months of the date of this letter. If you request an internal review, please do so in writing stating the reasons to the address above.

If following an internal review, you were to remain dissatisfied you may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner and ask the Commissioner to investigate whether the DOJ has complied with the terms of the FOIA. You can write to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

The Commissioner will not investigate a complaint unless an internal review procedure has been carried out.

Further details on the role of the Information Commissioner and the handling of appeals can be found at: www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk

Yours sincerely

Records & Information Manager
