Review of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (PACE) Codes of Practice.

1E. Please provide details of the aims and/or objectives of the Policy, Strategy, Plan or Public Service.

The Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 and its associated Codes of Practice are vital parts of the framework of legislation providing the police with the powers they need to tackle and investigate crime. The PACE Codes provide guidance on the use of the powers set out in the PACE Order and set out safeguards to protect the rights of those under investigation by the police and/or detained in police custody. Since the last review, Westminster has introduced various pieces of legislation which require the PACE Codes in Northern Ireland to be updated, in line with the associated Codes of Practice in England and Wales.

1F. What definition of 'rural' is the Public Authority using in respect of the Policy, Strategy, Plan or Public Service?

3C. Please provide details of the methods and information sources used to identify the social and economic needs of people in rural areas including relevant dates, names of organisations, titles of publications, website references, details of surveys or consultations undertaken etc.

N/A

3D. Please provide details of the social and economic needs of people in rural areas which have been identified by the Public Authority?

N/A

If the response to Section 3A was YES GO TO Section 4A.

3E. Please explain why no steps were taken by the Public Authority to identify the social and economic needs of people in rural areas?

The Department considers that implementation of the proposals would not have any significant adverse or differential impact on people living in rural communities compared with those in an urban setting. The same benefits will apply equally to anyone who comes into contact with the police, irrespective of their location.

SECTION 4 - Considering the Social and Economic Needs of Persons in Rural Areas

4A. Please provide details of the issues considered in relation to the social and economic needs of people in rural areas.
