Consultation on evidence of domestic abuse that should trigger an automatic prohibition on cross-examination in person in family proceedings.

1E. Please provide details of the aims and/or objectives of the Policy, Strategy, Plan or Public Service.

The overall aim of the policy is to specify in secondary legislation evidence of domestic abuse that would trigger an automatic prohibition of cross-examination in person in family proceedings. In order to protect all parties' right to a fair hearing, it is considered that the types of evidence to be specified need to be sufficiently objective and robust to justify an automatic prohibition.

2B. Please explain how the Policy, Strategy, Plan or Public Service is likely to impact on people in rural areas.

Domestic abuse occurs across the whole of Northern Ireland and is not confined to rural or urban areas. We do not consider that the forms of evidence specified in regulations will impact in a different way in rural areas compared to urban areas.
