6th January 2016

REFERENCE: FOI16\01

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request for information dated 4 January and detailed below.

“May I ask under the Freedom of Information Act why the PSNI or PPS have not initiated proceedings against Molloy for causing gross sectarian offence using electronic means?”

The Minister wrote to you on 5 January advising that the above part of your request had been sent to the Department’s Freedom of Information Team for a response.

We have searched our records and have established that we do not hold any recorded information relating to your request.

If you are unhappy at the way in which your request has been handled you may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner and ask him to investigate whether the DOJ has complied with the terms of the FOIA. You can write to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Further details on the role of the Information Commissioner can be found at:
www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk

If you wish to discuss this please contact the Freedom of Information Team using the contact details provided at the top of the first page. Please remember to quote your reference in any correspondence.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Manager
