Help and information

Staff at the Reception Desk or at the public counter will be pleased to help with any queries you may have. Notice boards at the entrance and outside each courtroom display lists of the daily business. Please note that court lists do not run in numerical order. Usually applications to adjourn and settlements/pleas of guilty are taken first. The Judge/District Judge then decides the running order of cases proceeding. Please ask a member of uniformed staff if you do not have a solicitor acting for you.

Please note that you must attend court at the time you have been given, although you may not be called until after this. If you feel you have been waiting too long, please contact a court official.

Do you have a disability or a special need?

If you have a disability or a special need, please contact the Disability Liaison Officer who will provide you with information on the facilities available. All courtrooms in Craigavon have induction loop systems, and our leaflets can also be made available in large print.

Mobile Phones and Photographic Equipment

Care must be taken in the use of mobile phones whilst in the precincts of the court. It is prohibited to use any photographic or recording device within the court building and the area immediately surrounding it. Some mobile phones are capable of performing this function and therefore you are advised not to use mobile phones for this purpose whilst attending court. Mobile phones must be switched off before entering a courtroom.

Witness Service

If you are a victim or witness for the prosecution, Victim Support Northern Ireland offers a Witness Service at all the Crown and Magistrate Courts.

Before the Trial: opportunity to talk to someone; pre-trial familiarisation visit to court; information on court procedures.

During the Trial: safe waiting area; liaison with court officers and legal representatives; arrangements for witnesses with special needs; accompanying witnesses into court.

After the Trial: preparing victims for case outcome; encouraging continued contact with Victim Support Community Service; referral on to other agencies.

Witness & Child waiting areas

There are also designated waiting areas for prosecution witnesses as well as secure waiting rooms for vulnerable or intimidated witnesses. The Young Witness Service has a permanent office on site, and a member of staff is designated as a Child Liaison Officer. If you have not already done so, you may wish to contact a solicitor before coming to court.

Giving Evidence

If you are aged 14 or over and have to give evidence in court, you will be required either to take a religious oath or 'affirm' that you will tell the truth. The court clerk will ask you which method you want to use, and invite you to repeat after them the appropriate words. A religious oath is a sworn promise to tell the truth and is made on a holy book. An affirmation is a declaration to tell the truth but it is not sworn on a holy book.
