EU Referendum Webcast - 24 June 2016

 Forward to a colleague

This Friday, the morning after the EU Referendum, Deloitte will host a webcast to discuss the prospects and changing environment for the UK, the EU, as well as businesses and organisations.

Further detail and the registration button are below.

EU referendum: The morning after

Webcast on 24 June 2016 11:00 BST/12:00 CEST

A vote on 23 June for the UK to remain in the EU could deliver a positive boost to sentiment and activity. A major source of uncertainty would subside, however the EU would continue to face the challenges of slow growth, an incomplete currency union and porous borders. A leave vote would mark a historic shift in Britain's place in the world with profound implications for the climate for business in the UK and for the direction of the EU.

Join Ian Stewart, Deloitte's Chief Economist, Rick Cudworth, Lead Partner for Contingency Planning, Sally Jones, Director in Deloitte's Tax Policy Group, and Christiane Cunningham, Director of European Regulatory Affairs, Deloitte Brussels, to discuss:

- prospects for the UK and European economies and for financial markets;
- the future of the EU and Britain's place in Europe;
- the trade and tax implications of the UK's changing relationship with the EU;

If you would like to discuss any of the above in more detail, please get in touch with your usual Deloitte contact.
