The Freedom of Information Act 2000 gives you two rights of access when you write to us asking for information. You have the right to know whether we hold recorded information falling in scope of your request, and you have the right to receive this recorded information subject to cost limit or exemption.

In relation to the information you have requested, please be advised that following appropriate searches, I can confirm that during the requested time period, the Department has not made any payments to the organisations listed in your request. Please also be advised that this response covers the Legal Services Agency Northern Ireland and the Northern Ireland Courts & Tribunals Services who are agencies of the Department of Justice and who also received your request.

If you are unhappy at the way in which your request has been handled you may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner and ask the Commissioner to investigate whether the DOJ has complied with the terms of the FOIA. You can write to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
