Dear Madam

Thank you for your request for information dated 26th April 2023 and detailed below.

- The duration of time utilising cloud infrastructure.
- The criteria used to choose a cloud provider.
- The percentage of infrastructures employing cloud services.
- The supplier of cloud infrastructures used. (AWS/Oracle/Azure etc.)
- Case studies highlighting the successful implementation of the 'Cloud-first' strategy.
- The uptime of the cloud infrastructure.
- The annual budget over the last five years for IT-managed services
- Please provide the percentage spent on cloud-managed services

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 gives you two rights of access when you write to us asking for information. You have the right to know whether we hold recorded information in scope of your request, and you have the right to have that recorded information given to you. These rights may only be overridden if the information you are looking for is covered by an exemption in the Act.

Please be advised that the DOJ does not hold any information in relation to your request as it has no contracts to use a cloud based infrastructure.

If you are unhappy with the result of your request for information, you may request an internal review within two calendar months of the date of this letter. If you request an internal review please do so in writing stating the reasons to the address above.

If following an internal review you were to remain dissatisfied you may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner and ask the Commissioner to investigate whether the DOJ has complied with the terms of the FOIA. You can write to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

The Commissioner will not investigate a complaint unless an internal review procedure has been carried out.

Further details on the role of the Information Commissioner and the handling of appeals can be found at: www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Manager
