Dear Sir,

Thank you for your request for information dated 12 June 2023 in which you requested details of the use of Ministerial cars during the absence of a functioning Executive.

Specifically you asked for the following information for the period from November 2022 to present:

1. The make and model of the Ministerial car.
2. The number of journeys made using the Ministerial car.
3. A breakdown of these journeys, providing for each:
 - The date of the journey
 - The broad start location (pick-up point) and end location (drop-off point)
 - The name and/or job title of the civil servant(s) or others who were transported.

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 gives you two rights of access when you write to us asking for information. You have the right to know whether we hold recorded information falling in scope of your request, and you have the right to receive this recorded information subject to cost limit or exemption.

In relation to the information you have requested, please be advised that the Department does not hold any recorded information in scope of your request as the Department does not have a Ministerial car.

If you are unhappy at the way in which your request has been handled you may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner and ask the Commissioner to investigate whether the DOJ has complied with the terms of the FOIA. You can write to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner
