Dear Sir,

Thank you for your request for information dated 09/08/23 and detailed below.

Under FOI legislation please provide me with a breakdown of how many times your department has recorded data breaches (including those report by arm's length bodies) during the last 10 years.

Please provide the breakdown in a Microsoft excel spreadsheet with the following column headings for each incident:

- Year data breach recorded
- Month data breach recorded
- Name or service area where data breach occurred
- Short description of type of data breach that occurred
- What action was taken as a result of data breach

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 gives you two rights of access when you write to us asking for information. You have the right to know whether we hold recorded information falling in scope of your request, and you have the right to receive this recorded information subject to cost limit or exemption.

The information you have requested is attached.

If you are unhappy with the result of your request for information you may request an internal review within two calendar months of the date of this letter. If you request an internal review please do so in writing stating the reasons to the address above.

If following an internal review you were to remain dissatisfied you may make a complaint to the Information Commissioner and ask the Commissioner to investigate whether the DOJ has complied with the terms of the FOIA. You can write to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

The Commissioner will not investigate a complaint unless an internal review procedure has been carried out.

Further details on the role of the Information Commissioner and the handling of appeals can be found at: www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk

Yours sincerely

Records & Information Manager
