This consultation seeks views on a proposed model for the introduction of Domestic Homicide Reviews (DHRs) in Northern Ireland, which will seek opportunities for learning from cases of homicide resulting from domestic abuse or violence.

Question 1:

Do you have any comments to make about the purpose of a Domestic Homicide Review?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Agree with the purpose of the DHR

Question 2:

Do you have anything to say about when a DHR will or will not be commissioned?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Agree with the circumstances when a DHR is commissioned.

Question 3:

Do you have anything to say about what may 'typically' be outlined within the terms of reference?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Agree with the suggested TOR.

Question 4:

Do you have anything to say about:

- the knowledge and skills of the chair
- the recruitment and contingency for the role of chair?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Agree with the independent nature requirement for the chair.

Agree with the suggestion of having more than one chair as a contingency.

Question 5:

Do you have any comments to make about DHR panel membership?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Core membership of the DHR panel should include Women's aid.
Members of local PCSPs should be considered as ad hoc members.

Question 6:

Do you have any comments to make about the consideration of equality and diversity issues by the Panel?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Agree with the equality and diversity inclusion of members.

Question 7:

Do you have anything to say about family involvement in the process?

If yes, please provide comments below.

The inclusion of victim's family is an important consideration.

Question 8:

Do you have anything to say about the involvement of other individuals in the process?

If yes, please provide comments below.

The inclusion of perpetrator's family would have to be sensitively handled for the sake of the victim and/their family.

Question 9:

Do you have any comments about the two key elements of the DHR process:

- (i) initial findings, learning and identification of actions needed; and
- (ii) identification of key findings, learning, actions and longer term change to improve service and the response in future cases of domestic violence and abuse?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Agree with the two stages of the processes.

Question 10:

Do you have any comment on the approach proposed regarding gathering information, or any suggestions as to how best this could be undertaken?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Question 11:

Do you have any comment on the suggested approach around publication of the DHR report and do you have any views on the frequency of report publication?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Agree with the proposed combination of individual and end of year reports.

Question 12:

Do you have any comment on the potential outcome of the reviews through the development of reports?

If yes, please provide comments below.

This is the crux of the process and monitoring of organisations is vital if the process is to lead to actual improvements.

Question 13:

Do you have any comment on the role and scope of the Senior Oversight Forum?

If yes, please provide comments below.

I am not familiar with the Senior Oversight Forum- would be helpful if some information is provided about it and its workings.

Question 14:

Do you have any comment on the organisations that would make up the Senior Oversight Forum, particularly the additional bodies that could be considered, or others that should be considered?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Appears to be wide reaching membership.

Question 15:

Do you have any comment on the potential implications the proposed model may have on equality or human rights?

If yes, please provide comments below.

Question 16:

Do you have any further comment to make about the proposed model?

It would be helpful if you reference which part of the document you are commenting on. If you refer to any other documents, please provide the title, author and if possible approximate date of publication or alternatively a hyperlink if it can be accessed online.
