

Omagh Courthouse

Location

The courthouse is located at the top of High Street and can be reached from either the Omagh bypass or through the town centre from the Dublin Road.

Transport

The bus station is approximately a quarter of a mile from the courthouse. For information about bus timetables contact Translink on 028 9066 6630 or www.translink.co.uk

Car parking

There is no car parking at the courthouse, but there is a car park directly behind the building and several car parks in the town centre.

Opening hours

The building is open from 9.00am. The office is open to the public from 9.30am to 4.00pm. The courts generally start at 10.00am, but may commence earlier so it is important to ensure you know the time your court is due to commence. Some courts will stop for lunch around 1.00pm and resuming at 2.00pm, until the daily business is finished, other will take a shorter break depending upon the business. The office is open for fine payment or other business during lunch.

Refreshment & other facilities

There is also a range of coffee shops and restaurants beside the courthouse and in the town centre. There is a no smoking policy in Omagh Courthouse.

Mobile Phones and Photographic equipment

Care must be taken in the use of mobile phones whilst in the precincts of the court. It is prohibited to use any photographic or recording device within the court building and the area immediately surrounding it. Some mobile phones are capable of performing this function and therefore you are advised not to use mobile phones for this purpose whilst attending court. Mobile phones must be switched off before entering a courtroom.

Note Taking in Court

Anyone wishing to take notes in court must obtain the judge's prior permission.

Witness Service

If you are a victim or witness for the prosecution, Victim Support Northern Ireland offers a Witness Service at all the Crown and Magistrate' Courts.

Before the Trial: opportunity to talk to someone; pre-trial familiarisation visit to court; information on court procedures.

During the Trial: safe waiting area; liaison with court officers and legal representatives; arrangements for witnesses with special needs; accompanying witnesses into court.

After the Trial: preparing victims for case outcome; encouraging continued contact with Victim Support Community Service; referral on to other agencies.

Witness & Child waiting areas

Omagh Courthouse also has a room allocated for vulnerable or intimidated witnesses. This room is located in a private area on the second floor. TV link facilities are also available on the second floor and a children's waiting room is available on the ground floor.

Help and information

The staff in the main office on the first floor will help with any queries you may have. There are notice boards outside each courtroom, which display lists of the daily business. If you require additional information or need to meet someone on arrival, you can get help from the reception desk or court office, which is available from 9.30am each court day. If you have not already done so, you may wish to contact a solicitor before coming to court.

Please note that you must attend court at the time you have been given, although you may not be called until after this. If you feel you have been waiting too long, please contact a court official.

Do you have a disability or a special need?

If you have a disability or a special need, please contact the Disability Liaison Officer who will provide you with information on the facilities available. Our leaflets can also be made available in large print.

Giving Evidence

If you are aged 14 or over and have to give evidence in court, you will be required either to take a religious oath or 'affirm' that you will tell the truth. The court clerk will ask you which method you want to use, and invite you to repeat after them the appropriate words. A religious oath is a sworn promise to tell the truth and is made on a holy book. An affirmation is a declaration to tell the truth but it is not sworn on a holy book.
